Renton Jr. High Participates in "Pennies for Patients"

Students of Renton Jr. High participated in the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's "Pennies for Patients" program. This program raises funds to find cures for leukemia, lymphoma and myeloma research and for patient services. "Pennies for Patients" is one of the Society's national school and youth programs.

The Renton Jr. High "Pennies for Patients" Program ran for a three-week period from March 3-21. We are excited to announce that the school's grad total was $1,558.49 - well above the state average! Hungry Howie's, the statewide sponsor, will award a pizza party for Ms. Arslan's 6th hour social studies class for collecting the most change in the total of $505.90.

This is a wonderful program for Renton students to take part in and the results of our students' efforts will benefit an outstanding organization. "This really shows kids that they have the power to make a dramatic difference in the lives of people who need their help," said Christina Lombardo, School & Youth manager at the Michigan chapter.

Students from Renton Jr. High raised funds for "Pennies 4 Patients" at a rate well above the state average. Proceeds will benefit leukemia, lymphoma and myeloma research and for patient services.

2003 Science Fair Winners

Have you ever wondered if keeping your candles cooler really prolongs the amount of time they will burn?

This question was answered by Chad St. Pierre, a student from Barnes Elementary, who placed 2nd in the fourth grade competition at the Downriver Science Fair. Meghan Holtz, a third grade student from Bobcean, also placed 2nd in the third grade competition.

Chad and Meghan were two of the 10 students that represented Flat Rock this year at the Downriver Science Fair. Students from third through sixth grade participated and even had a few first grade projects on display.

The students were required to conduct an experiment following the complete scientific method. It was evident that hard work, imagination and originality went in the student's projects this year which made it very difficult to determine who would go on to compete in the Downriver Fair which was held on March 20th at the Taylor Sheridan Center. We are very proud of our students and want to especially congratulate Chad and Meghan for their success.

The other students representing Flat Rock Community Schools were Nichole Antolak and Lauren Gibson from third grade, Jennifer Liedel and Lauren Marcon from fourth grade, Ryan Glaser, Rachel Holtz, and Adam Kittle from fifth grade, and Ashley McMahon from sixth grade.

Your Cosmic Look For The Week Of April 3rd - 9th For entertainment only!

Aries Mar 21 - April 20
Love goes sour as does milk if not treated with care. Unforeseen events bring about major changes. Love for new interests in old places or with that same old person. Age sometimes makes it all better. 1098
Taurus April 21 - May 21
Old ID not old unless you feel old. Birthday looms and brings feelings to a head. Too young or too old for mid-life crisis so settle back and make best of a good situation. Children tell truth. 2287

Gemini May 22 - June 21
Take deep breaths but don't hold. One you thought you could trust has broken the bond. Friends rally with words of love and encouragement. Keep mental peace with yourself and confuse the rest. 3388
Cancer June 22 - July 23
News on TV is old but new news to be heard soon. Find self on inside of special event. But with unwanted coworker life may be difficult. Nature makes lawn green but your green nature makes trouble. 8729
Leo July 24 - Aug 23
Monkey in the middle too old a game for you but once again you have found yourself in the hot seat. Friends befriend others but you find refuge in old time love. Seek shelter from the news in lower level of mind. 1087

Virgo Aug 24 - Sept 23
Hearts break and mend but will be too late for yours. Mistakes made now cannot be repaired at a whim. Do not venture where you are not welcome. Find others do not share your needs. 2229
Libra Sept 24 - Oct 23
A candle in the wind or one on an order form still blows the budget. Old friends find time to visit but old friendships never change. Stale mind in household worse than old bread in toaster. 4092
Scorpio Oct 24 - Nov 22
Look forward to summer with family and warm fun in sun but deal with tasks at hand. Children run out of control Take time to weed out old flowers and old thoughts of unhappy times. 5448
Sagittarius Nov 23 - Dec 21
You look forward to return to work day but other may have change in mind for you. Your heart beats in time with your love's. Children age quickly and remind you of how old you are. 0028
Capricorn Dec 22 - Jan 20
Old is old when nothing is new. Look for answer to this question in mirror. Certain people entertain you but you find the fun is not worth the damage done. Are you too late to mend the fence? 3434

This week East meets West with a traditional recipe that has always been low fat along with great flavor.
You may have seen Tandoori Chicken on a restaurant menu but were reluctant to try it because it appeared too spicy. The spices used in this dish are not terribly offensive at all.
I know that some of you may think that you can't afford Saffron, it is not as out of reach as you might think. I have been able to find small boxes of it in some stores, but you have to keep your eyes open for it. It is only a couple of dollars, but you don't need a lot when you use it.

Tandoori Chicken
4 chicken breasts - boneless/skinless
Marinade
1 cup Yogurt - plain lowfat
1/3 cup lemon juice
1 tsp. salt
1 pinch Saffron - minced
2 tsp Corriander seed lightly roasted and ground
1/2 tsp. Red Hot pepper Flakes
2 tsp. Cumin - (powdered)
2 tsp. Ginger (powdered) or 1 tsp. fresh - minced
2 cloves garlic - chopped
Place all marinade ingredients in a blender and mix completely. Pour marinade over chicken, cover and refrigerate 12 hrs. overnight. Broil or grill, basting occasionally with marinade - while cooking only. When they're done spray with a couple shots of butter spray and sprinkle with a little lemon juice. Serve with fresh onion and tomato wedges on a bed of Basmati rice.
